The Best Carrying, Easiest Riding and

Most Durable Wagon in Use.

The best carrying because of perfect Springs, and bearings at proper points to give the greatest strength.

Easiest riding. A Wagon carrying 1500 lbs. ride as easy for one man as the best Phaeton.

Most durable, because the combination of the Springs is such as to give perfect elasticity to the goar, thereby entirely obviating the sharp side motion and consequent strain on the Wheels and other parts of the Wagon allowing the Wagon to pass over all irregularities of the read without winding or cracking the box, or perking, or inconvenience to those riding. The binding of the circle, a necessity with all other Platform Wagons, is curricily obviated, allowing the team from side to side.

Our Wagons are manufactured from choice material, by the best machanies, thoroughly painted, with fine faulish and trim, and warrapted. If you want a Family Wagon, a Peddler's Wagon, Market wagon, er a Wagon for any of the purposes for which the Platform or Democrat Wagon is generally used, are and try these Wagons and you will use no other.

THE RECENT ELECTIONS.

The result of the recent elections in Ohio, Iowa, Nebraska and New L Jersey demonstrate that the mission of the Republican party is not yet ended. The sober second thought has come to the people and they reason correctly that it is too soon to entrust the National affairs in the hands of the present leaders of the Democracy.

The mission of the Republican party is not yet ended. Important work remains to be done. The Southern States need enlightenment, and this can only be brought about by popular education. Free schools must be established, and this can only be done through the ascendancy of Republicanism. Democracy rests its strength upon ignorance, and will do nothing to remove it. Wherever it has the control, it places ob stacles in the way of intelligence. The currency of the country must be based on some legitimate standard of value. The Republicans everywhere have pronounced in favor of an immediate return to specie payment The Democracy of several of the most important States in the Union have declared for inflation, repudia tion, and consequently, dishonor What lover of his country can then hesitate as to his choice in 1876. The result of the recent election show that Ohio has gone largely Republican. The Democrats admit a probable majority of fifteen thousand. Nebraska and Iowa show largely-increased Republican majorities. Iowa is estimated to have given thirty thousand majority. From all this we conclude that next year there will be a big funeral procession, and the leading carriage will be occupied by the put rid remains of the once yelept Democratic party, and all the loyal people of the nation will take a holiday

Comments of the New York Press upon the Elections.

The Times regards the Republican triumph as a simple, honest repudiation of the attempt to break public faith and sully national honor. The decision of Ohio must be followed by similar verdicts in other States.

The Cedars of Lebanon.

The cedars of Lebanon, once the glory of the earth, have become like the history of the past. Time was when their wide-spread branches, each forming a green plateau, one above another, flourished in all their luxuriance and beauty on the farfamed mountain of Lebanon. There was a time when the monarch of Tyre —a city then queen of nations—sent thousands of his workmen to fell trees for the construction of the temple of Jerusalem. Those who would view the cedars of Lebanon now must be somewhat affected by the fewness of their number, and their decay and desolation. A little remnant is left of sadness. All through the middle ages a visit to the cedars of Lebanon was regarded by many persons in the light of a pilgrimage. Some of the trees were thought to have been planted by King Solomon himself, and were looked upon as sacred relics. Indeed, the visitors took away so many pieces of wood from the bark, of which to make crosses and other articles, that it was feared the trees would be destroyed. The once magtaking a clear view, the trees resume half a mile; but once amidst them, to his landed and other possessions brethren in good standing are to attend
